

Undisclosed future 4
D-composed poems

Ronita knows she is getting older

when yogurts reach the sell-by date on her birthday

But can Rosita trust canned food?
in the silent pantry all the cans look through the undisclosed future sure about how they are going to last longer than her. Rosita knows that soon she will move to another STATE the D-Composed one.

That's where she already sends her mails and her hair when she cuts them. And all her biodegradable dispensable stuff.

When her brother, Francis, was born, he and the future seemed to be the same thing -

Not anymore but he makes it a living.
and now they can afford to live in:
↳ Madame Renée's Cottage ↳

Madame Renée passed away last Summer.
but her garden kept the secret of beautiful Roses.
